Happy February!

As this month begins, your Editor finds himself in Rome, and I don't mean the town in New York. And as the weather here is in the 50s, it's really not much warmer than home. Still wondering if winter will give us a major wallop, or whether Spring will be early this year. Speaking of Italy, our February meeting will feature Pizza, so I am already looking forward to it. But still much more to eat here in Rome before I go home!

Our Election of Officers took place at our January meeting. Ed Rossi stepped down after a good tenure at Clerk (many thanks Ed!), and George Bilodeau offered to take over. And while our other current officers were re-elected, we had something different this year. Normally it has been hard to find people willing to help run the club, but this year, Charlie Noonan stepped up and volunteered to help and ran for VP, our first contested position in years. . Even after the election, Charlie graciously offered to assist Jim Turner whenever he needed anything, an offer that was enthusiastically accepted. Thanks Charlie! It's good to see folks wanting to help!

Hope to see you all on the 10th.

- Mike and John
