Happy New Year!

It's hard to believe it is January 1st and it is in the 50s outside! We all hope you had a great holiday season. We'd like to thank Mike for the great spread at our December meeting. Excellent as usual!

For some of us, the year kicks off with the FUN show in Florida, but our local shows resume as well. With some lower silver prices, it may be an opportunity to get some of those items you've been holding off for.

For our club, it is time to kick-off the new year with our Elections of Officers. For those of you who don't really have the time for that, there is still plenty of ways you can get involved in club activities. We are always welcoming new ideas, and new ideas can warrant Committees to discuss those ideas and make recommendations. Or, just helping out at the meetings in small ways can be much appreciated. 2011 was a good year for our growing club. Let's keep the momentum going into 2012!

Hope to see you all on the 13th.

- Mike and John
