Hi all,

This is probably the first time ever the WCNS monthly newsletter was written and sent to you from Bangkok Thailand, but this is where I find myself this week. Unlike home, it is hot and very steamy. But the food is great.

Last month we kicked off a new year, and despite the multi-day show in Manchester NH where a number of our members spent the weekend, we had a great turnout at our meeting. John Ferrari showed us about more National Banknotes than I even know existed! This month, our own George Bilodeau will provide what should be a very interesting presentation.

We also kicked off our charity raffle for the Worcester food bank, so we certainly hope you will all help sell tickets to this wonderful cause, especially as we move toward the colder months.

We hope to see you all on the 12th.
